Nuggett Taylor's post on Facebook- "OK, went to docs Thursday {12/15}. I am now walking on my cane. Still have to build up muscle strength in the legs. The bone breaks are all healed. NOW to get the wound totally healed. Still have a couple stitches in it to help keep it together. Those will come out when it is totally together. Just a bit more to go. But it is happening...I guess I am getting there! Seeing light at the end of the tunnel...

On December 20th, our new member Suzette West and her family suffered the loss of one of their best and brightest. Her aunt Dorothy Berry passed away. She had a music career back in the early 1960s and was the inspiration for the "fine little girl" written about in the famous party song "Louie, Louie" written by my uncle Richard Berry. A beautiful write up and tribute for her was published yesterday. Here is more information about her story as well as the love story between her and my uncle Richard: <http://www.louielouie.net/blog/?p=11068>

Cards of sympathy may be sent to Suzette West, 3377 Bethel Road, Suite 107 PMB 185, Port Orchard, WA, 98366.

GA from Debi Cassidy

Bess Shriver was in an accident in the mountains back in August that she was blessed to walk away from, but totaled her bike. She finally got a new one, and after riding for several month she decided she wanted to go to a road course to hone her skills and become a better rider - to face any fears she may still be having. She crashed - her fiancé was riding in the group in front of her so she was alone at that point therefore unsure what happened. She had several breaks and lacerations including a server closed head traumatic brain injury. She has already had neck surgery, and later back to surgery for her arm/ elbow. She also has spinal injuries. Bess is alert, aware and continues to be her positive self, fighting to get better. To quote Brian, " Her attitude is so positive and courageous she believes her injury has carried her to Shepherds for a new chapter. To learn about spinal injury and apply her knowledge of Pilates and anatomy. (Bess is a Pilates instructor). She is now at Shepherd's Center for rehab. This place is amazing, and with Bess' will and drive and Brian standing beside her we believe she will overcome any obstacles in front of her.

You can send cards, encouragement and well wishes to Bess Shriver, c/o Shepherd Center, 2020 Peachtree Road, NW Atlanta, GA 30309-1
