Atlantic Canada has so much to offer.

We have....antiques and auctions

A photograph of a rural landscape. In the foreground, a gravel road leads towards a paved road. Beyond the paved road is a green field with a herd of cows of various colors (brown, black, white) grazing. In the background, there is a house with a light-colored roof and walls, surrounded by trees. The sky is overcast with grey clouds. The text "We have lots of animals in Atlantic Canada." is overlaid on the image in a bold, black font.

We have lots of animals in Atlantic Canada.

You will see cows...

some may remain still as you take pictures

but beware, you never know when you will meet a cow coming down the road toward you

Maritimers love their horses

and ponies

we have lobster

our woods are full of moose and deer

Be extremely careful, watching for deer and moose - especially at night.

A barber/salon
in the Delta Beausejour

We have legions and bingos and other forms of gambling

You will see lots of boats

Boats - Annapolis, NS

Boats - St. Martins, NB

Boats - Pugwash, NS

Borden, PEI

Heck, we even have an ARC
in Florenceville, NB

Bring your windshield cleaner - we have a few bugs

But fear not, as we have bug nets to stay safe.

Atlantic Canada is full of beautiful churches, many very old.

Historic church in Kingston, NB
being restored.

You may experience some construction

Well, maybe a bit more than 'some'
construction...making the roads better for you.
